

ELBA & OMAR

Dear Birth Mother

Thank you for taking the time to get to know a little about us. From the beginning of our marriage, we knew that if we were to experience the joy of parenthood, it would be through adoption. We see adoption as an act of love that flows both ways, and it has always been our first decision.

If we are blessed to be chosen, we promise to provide a safe and loving home, filled with faith, grace of God and celebration of Hispanic culture and language. The child will always know their story, because it will be important for them to understand their roots in order to develop a healthy sense of identity. Our hearts are ready to nurture, encourage, and love unconditionally.

We pray that God will guide you in finding the family that is the best fit for your child.

Our Wedding

We have been married for 20 wonderful years, after meeting and marrying in a small town in Puerto Rico. We are best friends who love traveling, sharing meals and spending time with friends and family.

We were both born and raised in Puerto Rico, and we keep our Hispanic culture deeply rooted.

About Us

Mary and Tiara, two great friends!

We have a little Chihuahua and seven parakeets. We enjoy working together inventing things in our backyard, creating new recipes in our oven, and spending time with friends and brothers and sisters in faith. Although all our family is in Puerto Rico, we have built a large extended family of friends and brothers and sisters in faith who support us.

ABOUT OMAR

Omar is a loving husband and a caring son and brother. He has a big heart and is always ready to help others, using his many talents to bless those around him. He has been a teacher for almost 20 years. Omar has a natural gift for music and the arts, which he uses to lead the worship ministry at our church, where he also serves as pastor. He is calm and easygoing, yet friendly and full of joy, and he loves spending time with family and friends. Above all, he has a caring and nurturing spirit, and I know he will be a wonderful father.

ABOUT ELBA

Elbita (as we affectionately call her) is a devoted wife, daughter and sister. She completed her studies in Education and Communication, and has spent many years teaching children in Puerto Rico and Maryland. Elbita also volunteers in our church's children's ministry and enjoys caring for our pets, reading, and traveling with family. She has a special gift for listening to people, which makes her a good confidant. She has a gentle and nurturing heart and looks forward to sharing her love and warmth with a child.

Our Home

We have been blessed with a four-bedroom home located in a quiet area with places to walk. The house is fully fenced and has a comfortable, safe backyard. It's just steps away from a park, but most importantly, it's a home filled with love, ready to welcome the child who will be a blessing and fill our home with joy.

A little bit more about us...

We both share the Christian faith and are active members in our church, where we serve the Hispanic community. We enjoy fellowship with our brothers and sisters in faith, as well as spending time together on fun outings.

Elba's Experience with Children

Elba has been a kindergarten and first-grade teacher since 2008 in Puerto Rico. In 2018, she began working in elementary schools serving children from predominantly Hispanic communities. She currently works at a middle school in the Hyattsville area. She has always had a special gift for working with children.

Omar's Experience with Children

Omar and our nephew Natanael

Omar completed his university studies in the field of education.

He taught elementary and special education students for 13 years and volunteered to help children with special needs from a young age. Here in Maryland, he has spent the past seven years working with children, primarily from the Hispanic community.

Our future...

We know that our future is in God's hands, and if it is His will to bless us with a child, we are ready to give them all our love and guidance. Above all, we are ready to celebrate their Hispanic culture and identity, and lovingly teach them about their roots. We pray that God will guide you to make the decision that is best for your baby. With a big hug!

Thank you!
